AOD
PARTNERSHIP

MARATHON COUNTY ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG PARTNERSHIP COUNCIL, INC.

“ The achievements of an organization are the results of the combined effort of each individual. ”

— Vince Lombardi

Who we are.

The Marathon County Alcohol & Other Drug (AOD) Partnership is a local substance abuse coalition comprised of a diverse group of more than 200 individuals and organizations working together to reduce the burden of substance abuse in our communities. There is no cost for becoming a member and many ways to get involved in coalition activities. As a local 501(c)3 organization, the coalition welcomes your tax-deductible investment to support our local efforts.

We need your participation and support.

What we do.

- We connect community resources to reduce duplication and to share credible information about the most effective ways to reduce alcohol and drug abuse.
- We address the problem at all levels from individuals, family members and employees to healthy living choices, treatment options and government policy.
- We enhance workforce productivity by increasing awareness among employers and employees about the costs and consequences of substance abuse.
- We use and endorse proven strategies in prevention, treatment and enforcement to achieve measurable outcomes.
- We enhance access to vital programs and services designed to reduce the abuse of alcohol and drugs.

What you can do.

- Be Informed by signing up for our Weekly Update or attending one of our upcoming meetings or trainings. A sign up and meeting schedule is available on our website.
- Get Involved in our Short Term Action Teams (STATs).
- Invest Time and Resources in coalition efforts.
- Take a Stand and work with us.

Short on time? Give us 10 minutes, and we'll find a meaningful way for you to get involved.

Why I joined.

“ AOD members address the underlying problems and causes instead of merely treating the symptoms manifested through criminal behaviors. ”

— Wally Sparks, Chief of Police, Everest Metro Police Department

“ I have seen the physical and emotional damage caused by the misuse of alcohol and other drugs in our community. That’s why I decided to get involved in the AOD Partnership. ”

— Pat Kinney, Center Administrator, Marshfield Clinic Wausau/Weston

“ The AOD Partnership is an opportunity to invest time in youth development and community initiatives that are helping in the prevention of substance abuse or other unhealthy lifestyle choices. ”

— Nancy Cedar, 21st Century Program Coordinator, Wausau School District
